

Jorg Imberger

Jörg Imberger received his PhD from UCB at 28 years of age and became Australia's youngest full professor at 35. His research interest are in environmental engineering as applied to rivers, lakes, estuaries and coastal seas. Recent foci also include strategies for sustaining functionality of aquatic systems in a changing world. He is a Fellow of 10 International Academies and the recipient of 30 major honours including the Onassis International Prize, the Stockholm Water Prize and Member of the Order of Australia. He has published 5 books, with two further in preparation, contributed to 19 books and has published 275 journals papers. Google Scholar credits him with 23,247 citations and an h-Index of 69.